WARNING:

This is just a guide.

Camps and mutant vehicles that wished to be in the guide, are.

Those who wished to remain stealth, are.

All contents and times are subject to change without notice and at the whim of the playa.

LIBRARIAN THANK YOUS!

Laura Baalman, badass Burner, incredible developer extraordinaire! Thanks to legend-ARY Xtopher, Christopher Cilley, for continuing to be an incredible resource and behind-the-scenes wizard that made magic happen so that all the music raw data can become digestible to the Burner reader. PS. Also cofounder of the Time to Burn app. Get it!

A HUGE DUSTY HUG and High-five thank you to the MOST ahhh-mazing Avi Flombaum for hopping into the project mid-summer and rocking out a way to automate, export and make amazing the printable PDF of the guide - this makes this process SO MUCH BETTER!

THANK YOU for saving the day at the last minute this year by jumping in to then design and layout this beautiful guide!

We Are Leaving a Legacy!

Since I began this initiative in 2018, we've collectively raised over $32K to bring clean water wells to the villages of Ghana via GoFundMe! THIS year let's fund one more well! Just $20 funds one person's access to clean water for the lifetime of the well.

The BIPOC Beats Collective is a transformative initiative aimed at amplifying the voices and presence of BIPOC (Black, Indigenous, and People of Color) sound artists within the vibrant, temporary city of Black Rock City. Born from a desire to challenge exclusionary practices and promote Radical Inclusion, the Collective connects, supports, and uplifts BIPOC musicians and performers. By partnering with theme camps and mutant vehicles, they've created diverse musical experiences that enrich the cultural landscape of the playa. The Collective also collaborates with allies to ensure that BIPOC contributions are recognized and celebrated, marking a shift towards a more inclusive and diverse musical community.

Icons in the Guide:

- BIPOC Sound Artists (Icon): Marks artists and performances that are part of the BIPOC Beats Collective, highlighting their contribution to the musical diversity on the playa.
- BIPOC Beats Collective Friends (Icon): Indicates camps and mutant vehicles that actively support and collaborate with the BIPOC Beats Collective, creating inclusive spaces for BIPOC sound artists.

Support, participate, and connect to amplify change and enrich the community through music. Reach out if you wish to connect with sound artists of color OR if you're a creator, join with us to enrich this community. @ bipocbeatscollective@gmail.com

Know Your Rights

HOW TO SPEAK TO LAW ENFORCEMENT

Your best defense against citation or arrest may be politeness.

Nothing requires you to incriminate yourself, and an officer may cite you for revealing any illegal behavior.

If you wish to exercise your right to be silent, say so out loud.

Officer, my name is [give your real name].

Am I free to go?

If I am not free to go, please explain to me your probable cause for stopping me.

I politely decline to give you any further information.

I do not consent to a search of me or my belongings, tent, vehicle, or camp.

WHEN CAN THE POLICE STOP & SEARCH ME?

Police may briefly stop to ask for your identity without probable cause of a crime.

Probable cause means an officer must be able to point to specific facts indicating criminal activity.

Police may not require you to answer additional questions, detain or search you without either consent or probable cause. An officer may ask your consent to search you or your belongings. Your refusal to give consent does not constitute probable cause for a search.

This is not legal advice. This is information discussing the general state of the law. We urge you to consult a lawyer for legal advice about a particular legal question or issue you may have.

If you believe you are coerced into giving consent for a search, or that you are searched without probable cause, you may wish to contact the ACLU of Nevada at aclunv.org.
